Hive Social Garden 2026 Teen Activities Plan

As Prepared by Sarah Younker

January: New Year, New You Spa Night

Relax with snacks, face mask, and nail polish as you discuss the importance of self care on both your physical and mental health. Explore what constitutes self care and the different activities you can do besides the stereotypical Spa Night

February: Palatine's Trivia Night

Sports, movies, music, and more. How well do you know your trivia? Team up with friends new and old to compete for the title of Trivia Master.

March: Movie Roulette

Grab the popcorn and blankets for a double feature movie night. Movies drawn from viewer submissions, who knows what films will be the lucky feature?

April: Tea and Tales

Calling all authors and artists! Join us for Tea and Tales, a time to meet other creatives to collaborate and create. Help each other develop stories, get feedback on your creations, and maybe find someone to share art with (artists to illustrate your stories or writers with stories for your works of art)!

May: One Night, One Shot

Whether you are a veteran to table top RPGs or never even touched the genre you are welcome here. Simple one shots on simple systems. We'll walk you through every step so that the only worry is the party rouge who is trying to steal your gold... again.

June: Pride Colt Classics

Celebrate Pride by joining us for The Wizard of Oz and The Rocky Horror Picture Show. A double feature celebrating two treasured movies of the Queer community.

July: Trivia Night

Sports, movies, music, and more. How well do you know your trivia? Team up with friends new and old to compete for the title of Trivia Master.

August: Back to School Spa Night

Prepare yourself for back to school with a relaxing night of snacks, nail polish, and face masks. Discuss ways to keep school stress low and how to manage your workload so you don't burn yourself out.

September: The Homecoming Game

The kick off to any school year is Homecoming. Now we don't have a football team BUT we do have Jackbox. Get dressed up and join us for party games of all kinds. Team up or play solo who will be crowned Homecoming Royalty? Only the games will decide.

October: Screamefest

"Getting scared together, screaming together, and spending time together! That's Halloween!" This two day horror movie marathon celebrates Halloween with classic and iconic horror films from the 80s, 90s, 2000s, 2010s, and 2020s.

November: Tea and Tales

Calling all authors and artists! Join us for Tea and Tales, a time to meet other creatives to collaborate and create. Help each other develop stories, get feedback on your creations, and maybe find someone to share art with (artists to illustrate your stories or writers with stories for your works of art)!

December: Holiday Movie Night

Not everyone celebrates Christmas but everyone loves the cheesy movies that flood our streaming services in December. Submit your favorite holiday movie to be shown and see which two movies are drawn for our holiday double feature.
